

Giving Collaboratives

Category	Organization	Website	Purpose
Regional	100 Who Care Alliance	www.100whocarealliance.org/	More than 400 local chapters (100 Men Who Care, 100 Women Who Care, 100 People Who Care, 100 Kids Who Care) of giving circles focused on local communities. Typically member commitments begin at $100, and circles make gifts of $10K+.
Millennials	21/64	http://2164.net/we-offer/convening	Peer group association for next-generation family members, age 21-40. 21/64 provides an effective forum in which participants can explore family legacy, examine and articulate their values, and develop their philanthropic identity.
Arts	5 Arts Circle	http://5artscircle.org/	Arizona's premier philanthropic organization supporting the arts community. Donors have contributed more than $4.1M.
Minority	ABFE	www.abfe.org	Membership-based philanthropic organization advocating for responsive and transformative investments in Black communities. Partnering with foundations, nonprofits and individuals. Provides members professional development and technical assistance resources to further the philanthropic sector's responsiveness to equality, diversity and inclusion.
Faith-based	Amplifier	www.amplifiorgiving.org ; Links to individual giving circles: http://www.amplifiorgiving.org/circles	Network of giving circles motivated by Jewish values and inspired by changemakers making a difference around the world. Website includes links to individual giving circles across the United States.
Foundations	Arizona Grantmakers Forum	http://arizonagrantsmakersforum.org	Empowers members to transform Arizona through leadership and meaningful philanthropy.
Minority	Asian American/Pacific Islanders in Philanthropy	www.aapip.org	Works to increase greater understanding and engagement between philanthropy and Asian American communities through the national organization and 10 regional chapters. Builds philanthropy within Asian communities; advocates for a more equitable and inclusive philanthropic sector; and develops programs that are most important to members.
Foundations	Associated Grant Makers	www.agmconnect.org	Regional association of foundations and corporations grantmakers in Massachusetts and New Hampshire.
Regional	Association of Baltimore Area Grantmakers	http://www.abagrantsmakers.org ; List of Regional Giving Circles: http://www.abagrantsmakers.org/?GivingCirclesRegion	Region's premier resource on philanthropy dedicated to informing grantmakers and improving Maryland. Membership includes more than 135 private and community foundations, corporations, donor advised funds, giving circles and public charities, representing the vast majority of institutional giving. Website includes links to several local giving circles in the Baltimore region: http://bit.ly/2n29Gub .

Provided by the Helen Brown Group (www.helenbrowngroup.com)

Giving Collaboratives

Corporate	B Team, The	http://bteam.org	Initiative formed by a global group of business leaders to catalyse a better way of doing business, for the wellbeing of people and the planet.
Children	Blue Meridian Partners	http://www.emcf.org/our-strategies/blue-meridian-partners	Launched in 2016 by the Edna McConnell Clark Foundation. Focused on economically disadvantaged children and youth; “seeks to change the existing dynamic in the nonprofit sector that sees funders often pulling their support from organizations as soon as they achieve a measure of success.” Has secured commitments of at least $860M from 12 partners including The Ballmer Group, The Sergey Brin Family Foundation, The David and Lucile Packard Foundation, and the Duke Endowment. Plans to invest at least $1B and will make unrestricted investments of up to $200 million over 5-10 years to scale the efforts of nonprofits whose programs have proven to be effective
Resource for Collective Giving	Bolder Giving	www.boldergiving.org ; Links to Giving Collectives by cause: http://www.givingcommunities.org/issues.php	Partnership to inspire and support people to give at their full lifetime potential. Website includes links to cause-related giving circles, searchable by issue.
Environment	Breakthrough Energy Collaborative	www.b-t.energy	Partnership committed to broad investment in new clean energy technologies. Expected funding of $1B+. Supported through Breakthrough Energy Ventures, a venture fund. Includes individual donors, corporations, and government funding.
Women and Girls	Catalytic Women	http://www.catalyticwomen.com	Offers education, tools and training to donors, investors and advisors who want to align money and values. Catalytic Women empowers individuals to engage in social impact investing, gender lens opportunities and strategic giving.
Minority	Cherry Blossom Giving Circle	https://dcingivingcircle.wordpress.com/	Group of volunteers committed to creating positive change in the Asian American and Pacific Islander (AAPI) communities of the Washington, DC metro area. Grants are given unrestricted between $500 and $4,000. Since 2009, they have awarded nearly $60,000 in grants. The Cherry Blossom Giving Circle is a member of the Asian Americans/Pacific Islanders in Philanthropy (AAPIP) National Giving Circle Network.
Regional	Colorado Association of Funders	http://coloradofunders.org	Statewide network of private foundations, community foundations, family foundations, corporate funders, federated funds, workplace giving programs, government agencies, and more.
Minority	Community Investment Network	www.thecommunityinvestment.org	National network of giving circles to inspire, connect and strengthen African Americans and communities of color to leverage their collective resources and create the change they wish to see.

Giving Collaboratives

Regional	Connecticut Council for Philanthropy	https://www.ctphilanthropy.org/	Association of grantmakers committed to promoting and supporting effective philanthropy for the public good in Connecticut.
Impact Investing	Confluence Philanthropy	www.confluencephilanthropy.org	Advances mission-aligned investing. Confluence supports and catalyzes a community of private, public and community foundations, individual donors, and their values-aligned investments representing more than $71 billion in philanthropic assets under management, and over $3 trillion in managed capital. Confluence is an international organization, with the majority of members based in the U.S., and a handful in Europe, Canada, and Mexico.
Regional	Council of Michigan Foundations	www.michiganfoundations.org	Community of philanthropists committed to improving outcomes for Michigan, and beyond. Through investing in the state's charitable organizations, convening business, government and nonprofit leaders, collaborating on critical issues, seeking innovative solutions, sharing knowledge and advocating, CMF leverages a collective voice to increase the impact of Michigan philanthropy.
Regional	Council of New Jersey Grantmakers	https://www.cnjg.org/	Center for philanthropy in New Jersey, serving the leading independent, corporate, family and community foundations as well as public grantmakers.
Regional	Delaware Grantmakers Association	www.delawaregrantmakers.org	Strengthens philanthropy in Delaware by providing information, education, networking and collaboration opportunities. Membership is open to individuals, foundations, and corporations who make philanthropic contributions in Delaware.
Minority; Regional	Denver African American Philanthropists	https://www.facebook.com/DAAP303	Male giving circle whose tagline is "black men giving with a purpose." Housed at The Denver Foundation.
Political	Democracy Alliance	www.democracyalliance.org	Largest network of donors dedicated to building the progressive movement in the US. Invest in every aspect of progressive power-building – from policymaking to organizing grassroots communities to winning state and national issue and electoral campaigns. DA addresses the most pressing challenges of our day through investments in three connected areas: a just democracy, a fair economy and an environmentally sustainable future.
Foundations	Emerging Practitioners in Philanthropy	http://www.epip.org/	National network of foundation professionals and other change makers who strive for excellence in the practice of philanthropy.

Giving Collaboratives

Environment	Environmental Grantmakers Alliance	https://ega.org/	Partners with more than 200 foundations to promote effective environmental philanthropy by sharing knowledge, fostering debate, cultivating leadership, facilitating collaboration, and catalyzing action. EGA member organizations collectively hold approximately $200 billion in assets and give more than one billion dollars annually to environmental causes.
Foundations	Exponent Philanthropy	www.exponentphilanthropy.org	Association of 2,000 funders. Dedicated to serving foundations with few or no staff, philanthropic families, and individual donors. Exponent stewards $77.6 billion in assets and grants more than $3.7 billion annually. They fund locally, nationally, and internationally, with 86% of giving going to local causes.
Regional	Florida Philanthropic Network	www.fpnetwork.org	Statewide membership network of philanthropic organizations working to build philanthropy to build a better Florida. FPN's members are private independent, corporate and family foundations, community foundations, public charity grantmakers and corporate giving programs who hold over $6.5 billion in assets and invest over $435 million annually.
Regional	Forefront	https://myforefront.org/	Association of more than 1,000 funders building a vibrant social impact sector for all the people in Illinois. Members work in 26 issue areas and include private foundations, such as family and independent foundations, public charities, corporations, donor-advised funds, charitable trusts, and individual philanthropists. Advisor Members include consultants, attorneys, investment managers, and other professional advisors to grantmakers and nonprofits. Forefront also actively engages social entrepreneurs, impact investors, and B-Corps in our work to spur innovation in the sector.
Foundations	Forum of Regional Association of Grantmakers	www.givingforum.org	National network of more than 5,500 organizations that facilitates effective philanthropy to strengthen communities and improve lives throughout the US. The Forum is the largest network serving philanthropy in America, consisting of 33 regional philanthropy-serving organizations (PSOs) and a growing number of national PSOs—such as national issue-based, identity-based and practice-based affinity groups.
Regional	Full Circle Fund	www.fullcirclefund.org	Network of Bay Area donors who commit $2,500+ annually "to make a greater impact and accelerate social change." The Fund has circles focused on Economic Opportunity, Education, Environment & Energy, and Health.

Giving Collaboratives

LGBTQ	Funders for LGBTQ Issues	www.lgbtfunders.org	Network of more than 75 foundations, corporations, and funding institutions that collectively award more than $1 billion annually, including approximately $100 million specifically devoted to LGBTQ issues.
Social Services	Funders Together to End Homelessness	www.funderstogether.org	National network of 175 funders supporting strategic, innovative, and effective solutions to homelessness.
Regional	Gateway Center for Giving	www.centerforgiving.org/home.aspx	The Center strengthens philanthropy and promotes community impact by providing programming, research, technical assistance, networking and professional development opportunities to grantmaking organizations in the St. Louis region. Members include corporations, donor-advised funds, foundations, trusts, and professional advisors who are actively involved in philanthropy, which we define as "the giving of time, wisdom and wealth by groups and individuals for the common good."
Regional	Giving Circle of Hope	http://givingcircleofhope.org/	Circle of more than 100 individuals who have collectively raised $1 million to create positive change in Northern Virginia through engaged and collective philanthropy.
Resource for Collective Giving	Giving Circles Fund, by the Laura Arrillaga-Andreessen Foundation.	http://givingcirclesfund.org/	GCF developed an innovative online platform that has helped emerging philanthropists grant hundreds of thousands of dollars to deserving nonprofits across the country. Website includes links to regional, cause-related giving circles across the United States.
Philanthropist Collective	Giving Pledge	www.givingpledge.org	Commitment by the world's wealthiest individuals and families to dedicate the majority of their wealth to philanthropy.
Regional	Giving Sum	http://givingsum.org/	Association of the next generation of philanthropic leaders working together to improve Indianapolis and central Indiana. Giving Sum engages members in diverse volunteer opportunities, introduces members to innovative nonprofits, and raises awareness for critical community needs. Additionally, they award one $50,000 grant to a community nonprofit annually.
Philanthropist Collective	Giving What We Can	www.givingwhatwecan.org	Collective of 2,725 members who have pledged to give 10% of their incomes to causes that will do the "most good." Together, they have donated more than $22 million and pledged more than $1.4 billion to a number of causes.
Impact Investing	Global Impact Investing Network (GIIN)	https://thegiin.org/	Premier investor-focused membership association, supporting impact investors and the growth of impact investment practices.

Giving Collaboratives

Philanthropist Collective	Global Philanthropy Forum	www.philanthropyforum.org	Peer-learning network of philanthropists and social investors committed to advancing international causes. Through conferences, programs and matchmaking services, the GPF seeks to build a community of philanthropists, and to inform, enable and enhance the strategic nature of its members' giving and social investing. A project of the World Affairs Council, the GPF now has affiliates in Latin America, Africa and Asia, and a membership in 98 countries.
Social Services	Grantmakers Concerned with Immigrants and Refugees	www.gcir.org	Network of member foundations focused on immigration and immigrant integration issues, including education, health, employment, civic participation, racial and economic justice, and other concerns affecting immigrant children, youth, and families. Some members have longstanding immigrant-specific funding initiatives, but most members incorporate immigrant and refugee issues into their core grantmaking programs. The majority of our members fund locally, regionally, or nationally in the United States, and a handful make migration-related grants in Latin America, Canada, Europe, Asia, and Africa.
Regional	Grantmakers Council of Rhode Island	www.grantmakersri.org	Membership organization of private, community and corporate foundations, corporation giving programs, and individuals with organized grantmaking programs or charitable endowments, works to educate and inform individuals engaged in organized philanthropy in Rhode Island.
Education	Grantmakers for Education	www.edfunders.org	Nation's largest and most diverse network of education grantmakers dedicated to improving educational outcomes and increasing opportunities
Foundations	Grantmakers for Effective Organization	www.geofunders.org	Community of more than 550 grantmakers working to reshape the way philanthropy operates.
Foundations	Grantmakers in Aging	www.giaging.org	Network of funders and leaders across the nonprofit and government world comprised of all types of philanthropies with a dedication to improving the experience of aging.
Arts	Grantmakers in the Arts	www.giarts.org	The only national association of both public and private arts and culture funders in the US, including independent and family foundations, public agencies, community foundations, corporate philanthropies, nonprofit, and national service organizations – funders of all shapes and sizes across the US and into Canada. In 2015, Grantmakers in the Arts approved this statement of purpose for their work in racial equity in arts philanthropy to increase arts funding for ALAANA (African, Latino(a), Asian, Arab, and Native American) artists, arts organizations, children, and adults.
Social Services Provided by the Helen Brown Group	Grantmakers Income Security Group (www.helenbrowngroup.com)	http://www.gistfunders.org/index.php www.helenbrowngroup.com	National network of nearly 50 grantmakers interested in improving the economic well-being of low-income families in the US.

Giving Collaboratives

Regional	Grantmakers of Oregon and Southwest Washington	https://gosw.org/	Community of funders working to strengthen and expand philanthropy and improve the vitality and health of our communities in Oregon and Southwest Washington.
Regional	Grantmakers of Western Pennsylvania	https://gwpa.org/	Professional membership association forming a place where grantmakers can learn and work together to increase their community impact. Serving 80 member organizations in 26 counties in western Pennsylvania.
Faith-based	Harvest Time	www.HarvestTime.cc	Christian-based collaboration of donors seeking to use their wealth for social justice, as a spiritual practice. Launched in 2017, Wisdom & Money offers multi-day retreats and one-day workshops designed for donor education and encouragement.
Environment	Health and Environmental Funders Network	www.hefn.org	A network of funders interested in environmental health and justice issues. HEFN supports foundations and individual donors as they learn, invest, collaborate, and lead in addressing environmental issues. HEFN does not provide grants or recommend grants to partner organizations.
Impact Investing	High Water Women	www.highwaterwomen.org	Nonprofit founded by women in the hedge fund and investment industries with a focus on providing enriched educational opportunities for low-income youth and the economic empowerment of women and children. In 2013, HWW launched an Impact Investing initiative with a Symposium for Family Offices, Foundations, Endowments and other Investors.
Minority	Hispanics in Philanthropy	www.hiponline.org	Collaboration of foundations, corporations, nonprofit organizations and individual donors committed to investing in the future of the Latino community. HIP provides philanthropic grants, capacity building funding, a crowdfunding platform, and a donor-advised fund management for members.
Women and Girls	Impact 100	http://impact100council.org/	Traditional giving circle, in which 100 women give $1,000 to create a $100K grant to the communities it serves across five focus areas: Culture, Education, Environment, Family and Health & Wellness. Impact 100 operates through 43 chapters across the US and Australia, with 14 additional chapters in development. By 2016, the chapters had collectively given away more than $45 million to people in need.

Giving Collaboratives

Regional	Impact Fund for Emerging Philanthropists	https://www.ffc.org/sslpage.aspx?pid=818	Special program of Foundation For The Carolinas aimed at young philanthropic leaders who want to make a difference in the Charlotte-Mecklenburg community. The Fund provides a hands-on experience in philanthropy and volunteerism. Members are guided through a multi-step process of researching organizations, requesting grant proposals and choosing nonprofit agencies for grant awards.
Regional	Indiana Philanthropy Alliance	www.inphilanthropy.org	Membership association of and for Indiana's philanthropic grantmaking community. Members include public and private foundations, corporate giving programs, governmental grantmakers, regranting organizations, philanthropic advisors and other qualified individuals. Collectively, IPA's membership holds about $18.6 billion in assets and awards more than $500 million in grants each year.
Faith-based	Interfaith Funders	www.interfaithfunders.org	Affinity group of foundations and donors, both from the US and globally, committed to advancing interfaith relations. IFG encourages philanthropists in their efforts to improve public understanding of faith and progress interfaith cooperation .
Minority	International Funders for Indigenous Peoples	www.internationalfunders.org	The only global donor affinity group dedicated solely to Indigenous peoples around the world. IFIP is led by donors and Indigenous leaders to advance a new movement in philanthropy that better values, supports and partners with Indigenous communities. IFIP hosts an annual conference and provides educational resources to encourage innovation and increase effectiveness within the grantmaking community.
International	International Human Rights Funders Group	www.ihrfg.org	Global network of 300+ grantmaking institutions and 700+ individuals committed to advancing human rights around the world through effective philanthropy. IHRF provides conferences, research and policy, and working groups for funders to share their work, challenges, and successes.
Regional	Iowa Council of Foundations	http://www.iowacounciloffoundations.org/	Membership based organization serving grantmakers that provide funding support to charitable projects and programs in Iowa.

Giving Collaboratives

Faith-based	Jewish Funders Network	www.jfunders.org	Collaborative of independent philanthropists, grantmaking foundations and Jewish federations leveraging the networks to produce change in the Jewish World. JFN provides networking opportunities, educational opportunities, conferences, and research on the most pressing topics in philanthropy and the Jewish community. By 2015, nearly one out of four members were Israeli, and in addition to the US and Israel, members hail from Argentina, Australia, Canada, France, Russia, South Africa, the UK, Sweden, and Switzerland. In 2006, JFN launched the Jewish Teen Funders Network, which currently engages over 2,000 teens.
Regional	Kansas Association of Community Foundations	www.kansascsfs.org	Association of grantmakers leveraging the resources of community foundations in the State of Kansas so as to strengthen and promote community philanthropy and inspire action that will improve the quality of life in Kansas. Assets of members have grown to $3B with members investing $1.6 B in Kansas communities between 2009 and 2015.
Minority	Latino Giving Circle Network	http://www.latinocf.org/Latino_Giving_Circle_Network	Group of intergenerational individuals invested in improving the lives of Latinos in California. Each member of the LGCN pledges to donate at least $1,000 a year with 100% benefiting nonprofit organizations. Currently, LCF has 10 Giving Circles addressing issues facing the Latino community. Since its inception, the LGCN has invested $212,000 in Latino-based organizations in the Bay Area.
Regional	League of California Community Foundations	http://lccf.org/	The League builds and strengthens California's communities by fostering collaboration among the state's community foundations. The League consists of 30 member foundations with total assets exceeding $13 billion. In 2014, League members received more than 34,000 individual gifts surpassing $2,603 million, and distributed grants of more than $975 million to community-based organizations working across a wide range of focus areas.
Regional	Maine Philanthropy Center	www.maine philanthropy.org	Association of grantmakers - small and large private foundations, community foundations, public foundations, corporate giving programs, family foundations and philanthropic individuals - who share a commitment to increasing the vitality and visibility of Maine's philanthropy community.
Women and Girls; Regional	Many Hands Giving Circle	http://manyhandsdc.org/	Women's grantmaking organization committed to making a lasting impact on the lives of Washington, DC area women, children, and families in need and to helping its members become well-informed donors

Provided by the Helen Brown Group (www.helenbrowngroup.com)

Giving Collaboratives

Women and Girls	Maverick Collective	http://maverickcollective.org	Founded May 2016 as an initiative of Population Services Intl., with focus on women and girls. Allows groups of women to pool their money in order to reach $1M minimum commitment. 14 founding members promised to each spend at least $1 million over three years to test health interventions in the most impoverished places in partnership with not-for-profit Population Services International.
Regional	Minnesota Council on Foundations	www.mcf.org	Community of diverse grantmakers who individually and collectively advance the common good in Minnesota.
Impact Investing	Mission Investors Exchange	https://www.missioninvestors.org/	Network of more than 200 foundations engaged in impact investing. Mission Investors Exchange provides an exclusive forum for our members to work together to align more assets to mission, whether through grants, loans, equity investments, or guarantees. The Exchange connects and convenes practitioners of all experience levels so they can exchange best practices and develop new investment opportunities; they educate and activate members so they can partner on deals and drive greater impact; and they leverage our membership network and long experience in the field to ensure that foundations are playing a leadership role in the expanding impact investing ecosystem.
Philanthropist Collective	National Center for Family Philanthropy	www.ncfp.org	National nonprofit dedicated exclusively to families who give and those who work with them. NCFP provides the resources, expertise and support families need to transform their values into effective giving that makes a lasting impact on the communities they serve.
Minority	National Council of Black Philanthropy	https://www.learningtogive.org/resources/national-council-black-philanthropy	Council designed to promote giving and volunteerism among African Americans, foster full participation by African Americans in all aspects of philanthropy, educate the public about the contributions of Black philanthropy, strengthen people and institutions engaged in Black philanthropy, and research the benefits of Black philanthropy to all Americans. Includes other collectives of donors supporting the African American community.
Minority	Native Americans in Philanthropy	www.nativephilanthropy.org	Membership-based organization that promotes reciprocity and investment in, with and for Native peoples to build healthy and sustainable communities for all. NAP is a powerful and growing network of Native and non-Native nonprofits, tribal communities, foundations and community leaders committed to engaging, learning and sharing resources and best practices grounded the Native tradition of reciprocity.

Giving Collaboratives

Social Justice	Neighborhood Funders Group	http://www.nfg.org/	Membership association of grantmaking institutions. NFG's mission is to build the capacity of philanthropy to advance social justice and community change. NFG organizes the field, develops leaders, and cultivates thought leadership among its national base of members and encourages the support of policies and practices that advance economic, racial, and social justice.
Social Justice	NEO Philanthropy	https://www.theneodifference.org/home	Mission is to increase funding for cutting-edge strategies that advance social change. NEP provides innovative support to funders by mobilizing resources, building partnerships and promoting leadership to achieve a vision of justice and dignity for all. In the past five years, NEO has provided more than $120 million to more than 300 innovative organizations on the front lines of social change.
International	New England International Donors	www.neidonors.org	Community of engaged global philanthropists learning, giving, investing and partnering together to end poverty, protect the planet, and ensure peace and human rights for all. Through strategic networking, educational opportunities, and information sharing, NEID aims to spark donor action and collaboration. NEID members annually distribute 10s-of-millions of dollars around the globe each year.
Regional	New Mexico Association of Grantmakers	https://www.nmag.org/	Membership association that provides programs, research and educational resources, and networking opportunities for grantmakers throughout New Mexico. Members include representatives from a cross-section of private foundations, public charities, governmental grantmakers, corporate philanthropists and individuals giving across the state.
Education; Social Justice	New Profit	www.newprofit.org	National venture philanthropy fund striving to break down the barriers that stand between people and opportunity in America. New Profit works with visionary entrepreneurs, philanthropists, and other partners to upend the status quo and transform the way America educates its children, propels people towards social and financial stability, and creates healthy communities. New Profit has directly given $120M to grow organizations and mobilized $1B+ for social innovation through policy change.
Women and Girls	New York Women's Foundation	www.nywf.org	Collective of women creating an equitable and just future for women and families by uniting a cross-cultural alliance that ignites action and invests in bold, community-led solutions across the city. NYWF invested $33M in 25 years in more than 280 community-based organizations, affecting the lives of 5.4 million women and children in NYC.

Provided by the Helen Brown Group (www.helenbrowngroup.com)

Giving Collaboratives

Minority; Regional	Next Generation of African American Philanthropists	https://www.facebook.com/Ngaap/	Philanthropic vehicle promoting collective giving of time, talent, and treasure to strategically invest improving the quality of life for African Americans North Carolina's Triangle area.
Millennials	Nexus Global Youth Summit	www.nexusyouthsummit.org	Global movement to bridge communities of wealth and social entrepreneurship. With thousands of members from 70 countries, NEXUS works to unite young investors, social entrepreneurs, philanthropists and allies to catalyze new leadership and accelerate global solutions.
Regional	North Carolina Network of Grantmakers	www.ncgrantmakers.org	Network of grantmakers sharing information and promoting cooperation among North Carolina. NCNG is committed to helping private foundations, corporate giving programs, donor advised fund holders, and community foundations strengthen their impact and effectiveness.
Regional	Northern California Grantmakers	https://ncg.org/	Network of grantmakers bringing philanthropy together to build healthy, thriving and just communities in Northern California. NCG addresses complex social issues through three areas of focus: Equity and Social Justice; Leadership, Culture and Community; and Regional Vibrancy and Sustainability
Regional	NY Funders Alliance	www.nyfunders.org	Association of grantmakers and philanthropic advisors throughout New York State. NY Funders Alliance develops and provides opportunities for funders to convene and connect, deliver tools and resources, and engage members in programming that highlights national, state, and regional thought leaders.
Regional	Omaha Venture Group	http://omahaventure.org/	Traditional giving circle, which also includes a learning and volunteer component. Members work to identify, contact, and meet with eligible nonprofits within three Interest Group areas: Youth, Adult/Senior, and Community. Matching funds – provided by Omaha area foundations – leverage members' donations to further increase the pool of available funds. Since its founding in 2003, OVG has funded more than 100 nonprofits.
Impact Investing	Opportunity Collaboration	www.opportunitycollaboration.net	Annual meeting of 400 global leaders building sustainable solutions to poverty. Opportunity Collaboration engages social entrepreneurs, innovative nonprofit executives, grant-makers, impact investors, corporate & academic field-leaders, and aligned media working around the world to solve common challenges and spark new opportunities.

Giving Collaboratives

LGBTQ	OutGiving	www.outgiving.org	Donor network with a commitment to advancing equality for the LGBTQ community. The hallmark of the OutGiving network is the biennial, invitation-only OutGiving Conference, which brings together major donors and institutional funders in a private setting to connect, learn, and exchange ideas on ways to advance equality through strategic and intentional philanthropy.
International	Pangea	www.pangeagiving.org	Giving circle whose purpose is to give its members and supporters direct, thoughtful and effective ways to support grassroots organizations in developing countries to improve the quality of life in their community. Membership levels are $1,500 (per individual) or $2,500 (per household). Grant awards are between $1,000 – $10,000.
Regional	Party with Purpose	www.partywithpurpose.org	Hoboken-based, volunteer-led nonprofit founded on the concept of producing great events to raise money for children’s charities. To date, PWP has donated $650,000 to partnering organizations.
International	Peace and Security Funders Group	www.peaceandsecurity.org	Network of public, private and family foundations, and individual philanthropists who make grants or expenditures that contribute to peace and global security. In April 2016, PSFG and Foundation Center launched the first-ever Peace and Security Funding Index.
Foundations	PEAK Grantmaking	https://www.peakgrantmaking.org/	Member-led national association of 3,400+ professionals who specialize in grants management for funding organizations. By cultivating resources, learning opportunities, and collaborations across the philanthropic spectrum, PEAK supports grantmaking practices designed to maximize mission-driven efficiency and effectiveness of funders of every size.
Regional	Philanthropy Network Greater Philadelphia	www.philanthropynetwork.org	Membership association for 150+ organizations and individuals active in philanthropy in the Greater Philadelphia area.
Regional	Philanthropy New York	https://philanthropynewyork.org/	Collaborative of 280+ grantmaking organizations working to serve the public good in New York. Membership includes the world’s leading private, corporate, family and public foundations. Collectively, they provide $6 billion in annual support to thousands of nonprofits and NGOs located in New York, the U.S. and around the world.

Giving Collaboratives

Regional	Philanthropy Northwest	https://philanthropynw.org/	Network for philanthropists and grantmakers who are committed to Alaska, Idaho, Montana, Oregon, Washington and Wyoming. Philanthropy Northwest provides educational and networking opportunities, customized philanthropic consulting services and impact investing resources for foundations and corporations. Members span a wide range of issues, grantmaking practices, size and scope. Together, they represent nearly 50% of regional philanthropic assets.
Regional	Philanthropy Ohio	www.philanthropyohio.org	Statewide membership association that provides the network, tools and knowledge to help people engaged in philanthropy become more effective, powerful change agents in Ohio communities.
Philanthropist Collective	Philanthropy Roundtable	www.philanthropyroundtable.org	Leading network of charitable donors working to strengthen our free society, uphold donor intent, and protect the freedom to give. Members include individual philanthropists, families, and private foundations. Includes roundtables for K-12 education, economic opportunity, veterans, and alliance for charitable reform
Regional	Philanthropy Southwest	www.philanthropysouthwest.org	Association includes trustees and grantmaking staff with foundations in Arkansas, Arizona, Colorado, Nevada, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas.
Regional	Philanthropy West Virginia	www.philanthropywv.org	Forum for West Virginia’s leading funders to exchange information, discuss common interests, learn about relevant issues, hone their grantmaking skills and establish networks of important relationships across the state. Members include private and family foundations, community foundations, corporate foundations and giving programs, health funders and other types of grantmakers
Philanthropist Collective	Philanthropy Workshop, The	www.tpw.org	Leader in ongoing strategic philanthropy education and networking—inspiring individuals and families to give better. Founded in 1995, TPW strives to bring educational programming, a diverse network, and a united position as the foremost influencers of strategic and innovative philanthropy in the global community. With offices in San Francisco, New York, and London, the TPW member network boasts more than 425 philanthropists throughout the United States and the United Kingdom with significant numbers from Canada and countries throughout Europe, Latin America, the Middle East, and Asia.

Giving Collaboratives

Corporate	Pledge 1%	http://pledge1percent.org/	Corporate philanthropy movement dedicated to making the community a key stakeholder in every business. Pledge 1% encourages and challenges individuals and companies to pledge 1% of equity, product, and employee time for their communities. As of 2016, more than 1,300 companies had taken the pledge .
Women and Girls	Prosperity Together	http://www.womensfundingnetwork.org/initiatives/prosperity-together/	Nonpartisan coalition of public women’s foundations dedicated to improving the economic security of low-income women and their families in America. Founded in 2015 by a group of six public women’s foundations. Over the course of the year, their group expanded to include 29 organizations. On November 13, 2015, at The White House, Prosperity Together partners announced a $100 million collective commitment over five years towards supporting women’s economic security. Coalition partners committed more than $29 million in 2016, 46% more than projected.
Environment	Rachel's Network	www.RachelsNetwork.org	Community of women at the intersection of environmental advocacy, philanthropy, and women’s leadership. Members support a diverse range of causes from sustainable food systems, to fossil fuel divestment, to animal welfare and beyond. To date, members have granted a combined $59M, occupied over 100 directorship positions on major environmental and social justice organizations, and are engaged in socially-responsible investing.
Resource for Collective Giving	Regional Association of Grantmakers	www.givingforum.org	Largest network serving philanthropy in America, consisting of 33 regional philanthropy-serving organizations (PSOs) and a growing number of national PSOs—such as national issue-based, identity-based and practice-based affinity groups .
Millennials	Resource Generation	www.resourcegeneration.org	Resource for a multi-racial constituency of young people with inherited, earned, or future wealth who are committed to working for a just world. Through community building, education and organizing, Resource Generation helps young people with wealth bring all they have and all they are to the social change movements and issues they care about.
Regional	San Diego Grantmakers	https://sdgrantmakers.org/	Network of 115 foundations, corporate philanthropy programs, giving circles, donor advised funds, grantmaking public charities, government funders, philanthropy advisors, and individual philanthropists who support a wide range of issues and causes in a variety of ways.
Regional	Silicon Valley Social Venture Fund	https://www.sv2.org/	Community of more than 200 individuals and families who have come together to learn about effective giving and pool resources to support innovative social ventures. Grantees have received more than $30 million in funding .

Giving Collaboratives

Impact Investing	Social Impact Exchange	www.socialimpactexchange.org	An Exchange dedicated to building a capital marketplace that scales proven nonprofits. The Exchange has formed Funder Working Groups to engage members in driving activities. Consisting of 25-35 funders (including government and business), these Groups collaboratively fund scaling initiatives and help build a marketplace for scaling social solutions in Education, Health, and Impact Investing.
Regional	Social Innovation Forum	www.socialinnovationforum.org	Network of more than 2,300 philanthropists, foundations, and business professionals who support innovative, effective approaches to address important social issues across Boston. SIF connects organizations to passionate investors, supporters, mentors, and in-kind partners who are seeking new ways to use their resources – time, talent, and money – to create positive social impact. SIF has directed $22 million dollars of cash and in-kind services since 2003.
Regional	Social Venture Partners Network	www.socialventurepartners.org ; Link to regional SVP Chapters: www.socialventurepartners.org/get-involved/join-svp	Network of more than 3200 engaged donors in 40 cities working to amplify their giving, fund and strengthen nonprofits and equip their communities to tackle our greatest social challenges. Partners in the SVP Network pool their funds and together they make multi-year, unrestricted gifts to carefully vetted nonprofit investees with proven potential for social change. Partners also contribute their business and professional expertise to the nonprofits, all with the goal of strengthening the nonprofit and increasing its impact.
Social Justice	Solidaire	www.solidairenetwork.org	Community of individual donors and foundations committed to funding progressive social movements. Solidaire works to address the deep systemic causes of injustice and inequality by consolidating efforts and collaborating in giving to increase resources for those who are fighting for a world where everyone can live with dignity.
Regional	Southeastern Council of Foundations	www.secf.org	Associations of grantmakers, serving more than 330 foundations and corporate giving programs across 11 Southeastern states. SECF works to serve, strengthen, promote and champion the South's philanthropic voice and infrastructure through engaging programming, leadership development training, access to unique resources and invaluable connections.

Giving Collaboratives

Regional	Southern California Grantmakers	www.socalgrantmakers.org	Association for philanthropists and grantmakers working to make a difference in Southern California and around the world. Members include family foundations, private independent foundations, community and public foundations, corporate foundations and corporate giving programs, individuals, and government agencies. SGC supports eight Southern California counties: Los Angeles, Orange, Kern, Riverside, San Bernardino, San Luis Obispo, Santa Barbara, and Ventura.
Regional	Spinsters of San Francisco	www.sfspinsters.com	Prominent social and philanthropic network of college educated, unmarried women between the ages of 21 and 35. Each year, members select a local charity organization to sponsor and support through volunteer service and charitable donations. In addition to funding, the group committed 700+ volunteer hours in 2016.
Millennials; LGBTQ; Minority	Third Wave Fund	http://thirdwavefund.org	The only activist fund led by and for women of color, intersex, queer, and trans folks under 35 years old in the United States.
Environment; Social Justice	Threshold Foundation	www.thresholdfoundation.org	Community of 300+ individuals committed to creating a just, joyful, and generative world. Threshold grants $1M+ annually to organizations providing social and environmental change movements. In 2007, they added Funding Circles aligned with their core values of social justice and environmental sustainability – including circles on climate strategies, food and farming, high impact documentary films, Middle East peace, and creating thriving resilient communities.
Impact Investing	Tonic	www.toniic.com	Global action community for impact investors, serving individuals, family offices, foundations. Members represent $4.5B in assets through 360+ impact investors located in US, UK, India, South Africa, Mexico, Israel, Netherlands, Sweden, Switzerland and more.
Regional	Washington Regional Association of Grantmakers	www.washingtongrantmakers.org	Membership association comprised of 100+ of the most well-respected foundations and corporate giving programs in the Greater Washington, DC region. WRAG's primary focus areas currently are Children, Youth, and Families, Public Education, Healthy Communities, HIV/AIDS, Racism and Racial Equity, and Housing.
Regional	Washington Women's Foundation	https://wawomensfoundation.org/	Traditional giving circle, where each member contributes $2,500 a year. Membership has grown to include over 500 women from a variety of life experiences and perspectives, with annual grantmaking totaling $1M+.

Giving Collaboratives

Impact Investing	Wealth & Giving Forum	www.wealthandgiving.org	Forum encouraging greater and more effective deployment of capital in philanthropic and socially-oriented investment vehicles among individuals and families of means to create positive social outcomes and to build the community of philanthropic change-makers. Through its annual gatherings, topical symposia and communiqués, the Forum offers members of its community thoughtful peer-to-peer exchanges of ideas and practices on aligning wealth allocation with one's values.
Regional	Wisconsin Philanthropy Network	http://wiphilanthropy.org/	Membership association for grantmakers from across Wisconsin. WPN represents over 109 organizational members with trustees, directors, staff and individual donors representing over 500 people. Members have contributed over $600M, and represent over $7B in assets.
Women and Girls; Politics	Women Donors Network	www.womendonors.org	Collaboration of women investing in progressive change. WDN builds connections between high-impact philanthropists through an annual conference, WDN on the Hill DC lobby trip, network-wide strategic initiatives, member-led donor circles, and regional events and trainings. WDN members give away more than $150 million a year.
Women and Girls	Women for Social Innovation	www.turningpointprize.org	Giving circle providing seed money to social innovators seeking to help women, girls and families in the Greater Philadelphia area. Minimum annual giving threshold of $250 for women under 35 and $1,000 for those 35 and older. Women for Social Innovation fulfills its mission by awarding the Turning Point Prize, giving $1M+ since 2008.
Women and Girls	Women Moving Millions	www.womenmovingmillions.org	Group of women giving $1M+ annually for the advancement of women or girls. Includes a Circles Program (circles include Film, Sex Trafficking, Gender Based Violence, Reproductive Health, and Anti-Pornography).
Women and Girls	Women's Collective Giving Grantmakers Network	www.wcgn-network.org	Forty-nine collective giving groups in 24 states and two countries. WCGN member organizations collectively have granted over $80 million in grants to nonprofits throughout the country.
Women and Girls	Women's Funding Network	www.womensfundingnetwork.org	Largest philanthropic network in the world devoted to women and girls, with more 100 women's funds and foundations spanning 20 countries. Members invest $65M annually.
Women and Girls	Women's Giving Alliance	www.wganefl.org	Giving circle working to improve the lives of women and girls in Northeast Florida. Since 2002, WGA has invested nearly $5 million to improve local women's and girls' lives and built an endowment of more than $2.8 million, ensuring local women's and girls' needs will be addressed for years to come.

Provided by the Helen Brown Group (www.helenbrowngroup.com)